Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1766.

Mr. CROUCH,

YOUR giving the following Letter a Place in your Paper, will oblige your humble Servant, A MASON.

ONE would imagine that the late Act of the 3d of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, to prevent any further Emiſſion of Paper Bills of Credit in the American Colonies and Plantations, would be noticed by all Ranks and Degrees of People, within theſe American Provinces, and open the Eyes of all thoſe ſo nearly intereſted, to look up to a Remedy to which that Act of Parliament has moſt aſſuredly (tho' perhaps not deſignedly) paved out the Way, unleſs they who are moſt affected by this Law, are dead to all Senſe of Feeling, and content themſelves, with contemplating and looking forward to what would be moſt Expedient, in ſo critical and ſo embarraſſing a Situation.

That you can Emit no more Paper Money, the Law is ſo very Explicit, and ſo literally in Evidence againſt you, from and after the firſt Day of September, 1764; and ſo highly Declarative is the Act, that all ſuch Bills of Credit, of any Kind or Denomination whatſoever, as ſhall from and after that Time, be emitted or declared a legal Tender in Payment of any Debts, Contracts, or Demands whatſoever, by any Act, Order, Reſolution, or Vote of Aſſembly, in any of his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in America, ſhall be Null and Void; and if this is to be underſtood as a Law operating on this Side of the Water, and to be regarded as an Act of Parliament, will it be any great Difficulty to ſhew you, that you will ſoon be reduced to great Straits for Want of circulating Caſh, and the dangerous Effects of this Inconvenience is not far off, being felt with a Severity, by which every Individual will be immerged under one and the ſelf-ſame Misfortune; altho' with this Difference, that the rich Man feels but few Calamities, and very ſeldom ſhares in the Diſtreſſes of his poorer Fellow-Creature.

Can any Man be ſo dead to common Senſe, to common Obſervation only, to know, that the Want of Currency will in the End, be the Deſtruction of your general Credit, which is daily weakening, and felt with a Langour, not only amongſt yourſelves, but in your neighbouring Colonies; and will not your Credit by this Scarcity, involve and embarraſs the poorer Part of the Inhabitants of theſe Provinces, who will bid you fair, in a ſhort Time, to be burthenſome to your Pariſhes; and I am as clear, that in its Conſequences, may promote and preſent you with Bankruptcies, that never would have happened; and tho' I ſpeak to you in general Terms only, yet it is far, very far from being a chimerical Obſervation; how far it may be of real Uſe, Time only will make the Diſcovery. And I confeſs to handle a Subject, ſo extremely delicate in its Operation, ſo momentous and intereſting; and to explain the high Influence a Plenty of Currency would have in ſo extenſive an Empire, at a moderate Intereſt, would, in my humble Opinion, require the moſt copious Pen to handle and bring to Maturity; and theſe Colonies, I am perſuaded, abound with Men of great Faſhion and Abilities, very capable of the Undertaking.

Can the Subjects of this remote Empire, however deſirous they may be, to render themſelves of Uſe to their Prince, and their own private Fortunes in Time of War, heartily concur to facilitate any good Effects to either, with a ſtinted Allotment of Paper Currency, hardly ſufficient to provide common Neceſſaries for Family Uſe; the Scarcity of which is ſo well known, that all the circulating Money, wandering about this extenſive Province, will hardly pay off and diſcharge the principal Money and Intereſt due upon Bonds and other Securities to one ſingle monied Gentleman, a Reſident within this Province; and theſe Colonies, tis well known, abound with Multitudes of Gentlemen of very extenſive and opulent Fortunes; then how in the Name of God, are theſe Payments ever to be made upon any preſſing Occaſion; and how little you would be able to Annoy an Enemy, in Times of a dangerous and bloody War: Under ſuch a Predicament, I ſubmit the Reaſon of the Caſe to the Opinion of every Gentleman of Candour and Impartiallity.

The Caſe being properly weighed and conſidered, and fairly and candidly deliberated, the Americans have a very fair Opening, to pay the Mother Country no ſmall Compliment, and to manifeſt both their Affection and Gratitude, by adding to her Treaſury, an annual Sum of 350,000 Pounds, under a well regulated Parliamentary Grant of Seven Millions Sterling, upon the Principal of providing for the different Provinces upon the Continent of America, and the Iſlands, Paper Bills of Credit in Imitation of Bank Notes, to be lent to the reſpective Provinces and Iſlands, at the Intereſt of 5 per Cent. per Annum, for and to the Uſe and Behalf of the Crown, upon Landed Security only, under this Reſtriction, that no Perſon ſhould be permitted to Mortgage his Eſtate to the Crown, for more than the One-half of its real Value; and that ſuch Bills ſhould paſs as a lawful Tender, in Payment of all Debts, Contracts, and Engagements, of what Kind ſoever, in each and every Colony, Iſland, or Plantation, in his Majeſty's Dominions: This, Sir, in my Opinion, would not fail to be of infinite Uſe to the Coloniſts, inaſmuch as by the Crown Money taken up at 5 per Cent. many Mortgagors and Obligors, would be enabled to diſcharge their Debts, now ſtanding out againſt them at 8 per Cent. which would be no inconſiderable Saving to themſelves and Families; and every Profeſſion would find ſome Advantage from it, but none more ſo than the Planter and Merchant; the former would be encouraged to encreaſe and enlarge his Plantation, and carry on his Agriculture with greater Rapidity, Eaſe, and Satisfaction, and would enable them to open and clear this glorious Country, with a Celerity hitherto unknown; the latter would be enabled and qualified to enlarge his Commerce, and, tis evident to Demonſtration, that he could by this Means, carry on three times the Trade he now proſecutes with the foreign Iſlands, and from thence obtain for his Commodities Gold and Silver, which would all Center at laſt with Great-Britain; the want of which Currency, ſtagnates and almoſt lays on an entire Reſtraint and Prohibition.

Money is allowed to be the Sinews of War; then why not the Sinews of Planting and Trade; the Situation and Nature of your Commerce, (added to that generous and benevolent Attachment you have for Liberty and the publick Good) upon ſo diffuſive an Empire, cannot want a more ſtriking Object to excite you to Favour ſome Plan or other of this Sort, to make you a much more happy, and flouriſhing People. I grant here is a Field open for Objections, and perhaps too, for exaſperated Materials to Work upon, until ſome ſuch Plan can be brought to Maturity, by Gentlemen of more Ability and Weight; but then, Sir, any Objections of this Kind, are moſt natural and likely to ariſe from the Money-lender, whoſe great and amazing Funds, would make no trifling Figure in Navigation, and other larger Tracts of Commerce, and in the enlarging and improving of their immenſe Eſtates.

Upon the whole, Money thus taken up from the Crown, would lay ſuch a reciprocal Foundation for each others Welfare and Security, being attended with neither Injury or Prejudice to the Coloniſts, to whom they are indebted, whether to the Crown, or to private Perſons; the ſame would naturally and without the leaſt Jealouſy, Fear, Danger, or Diſtruſt, work out a general Good, and Employment to both; and I flatter myſelf that the rich Man, whom God has ſo abundently bleſſed, and ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed, beyond the Reſt of Mankind, will now manifeſt a due Senſe of ſo extraordinary a Bleſſing, and Wave every ſelf-intereſted Motive for an Event ſo eligible, ſo deſirable, and beneficial to the Whole; as it is truly Evident, that three times the Trade would be carried on from theſe Colonies amongſt Foreigners, and in ſuch Articles as we can well ſpare, for Generations to come; from that general Encouragement it would give to the Planter, to bring a greater Quantity of his ſurplus Commodities to Market; and it is undoubtedly as clear, that a Plenty of this Currency, would increaſe and enhance the Orders for the Britiſh Manufactures, to almoſt double the preſent Demand and Conſumption.

November 10, 1766.

To the Printer of the Publick Ledger for Auguſt, 1766.

SIR,

AS Population is ſo extremely neceſſary at this Juncture, both for the Engliſh Dominions in Europe and in America, no Subject ſhould be allowed to remain Idle, which the Confinement of Debtors in Priſon obliges many to be, who would otherwiſe enrich the Nation by their Labours: It is therefore to be wiſhed that all Inſolvent Debtors, for any Sum, might be releaſed upon their Conſent to ſettle in America.

The Obſervations of theſe great Men merit Attention, being of the higheſt Authority.

Lord Bacon writes, that 'no Man could be arreſted for Debt in England, according to our original Conſtitution.'

Lord Chancellor Talbot ſaid, that 'a Debtor pays the Debt of any Sum by the Impriſonment of a Year, according to the Dictates of real Humanity and good Policy.'

Sir William Temple obſerves, that 'Detention for Debt is certainly prejudicial to the Nation, and wiſhes that no ſuch Law exiſted, particularly in a Land of Liberty, as England.'

I am, Sir, your humble Servant,
HUMANITAS.

LONDON, September 2.

Extract of a Letter from Valenciennes, dated Auguſt 20.

"The chamber-maid of a lady of diſtinction, who lived in this town, and kept no other ſervant, has committed a moſt horrid murder, of which the following are the particulars: On the third of this month, about Noon, this girl engaged her Miſtreſs to go and look at ſomething at the top of the cellar ſtairs; from whence ſhe violently puſhed her down all the ſtairs, followed her immediately, fell upon her, and thruſt her hand into her mouth, to prevent her crying out, then took up a brick which laid at hand, and beat her on the head with it till ſhe was dead. This done, ſhe undreſſed her, and left her naked with her cloaths by her ſide; then going up ſtairs, ſhe changed her dreſs, left the houſe, and went to Velper's, and afterwards walked the reſt of the afternoon, telling thoſe who ſpoke to her, that her miſtreſs was gone to a confecration at the curate of Onnain's, at a village about a league diſtant, that ſhe intended to paſs by the ſide of the Schelde, and that ſhe was to go to her next day, and carry her watch and jewels. In the evening ſhe returned home, went into the cellar, and cut the body in pieces, ſeperating the head, arms, and legs. Next morning ſhe carried the head, arms, and body, in a ſack under her riding-hood, about a quarter of a league from the town, and threw it into the Schelde, and the next day towards evening, did the ſame with the other parts. However, on the fourth ſhe carried her miſtreſs's watch and part of her jewels to the curate of Onnain, as if ſhe expected to find her there; ſhe expreſſed great uneaſineſs at her not being there, and went away under pretence of going to ſeek her, leaving the watch and jewels. On Tueſday the fifth ſhe went for them again, and carried them to her miſtreſs's ſiſter, ſeeming greatly alarmed at what might become of her good lady. The ſame day a leg and ſome other parts of the body were found in the Schelde, and this wretched creature was the firſt to ſay, they muſt be thoſe of her miſtreſs, who undoubtedly had been murdered in going to Onnain; ſtrict examination having been made into the affair, and after undergoing ſeveral interrogatories, the girl has confeſſed her horrid crime, with ſuch circumſtances, that there is no appearances of her having had any accomplices."

NEW-YORK, November 3.

Captain Johnſton, in 20 Days from Antigua, informs us, that on the 3d ult. was taken up at Sea, and brought to that Iſland, by one of their Pilots, a large black Sloop, without any living Creature on board; ſhe had new Sails made by Chriſtopher Dyckinck, in New-York, four Ports in each Side, four Cabbin Windows, with four Panes of Glaſs in each; her Cabbin painted of a Cedar Colour, her Starboard Shrowds cut away, and ſeveral Cuts in her Maſts, with her Lumber Port open: She had a new Cable, Hoops, Lumber, and Ducks on her Deck; alſo ſeveral Barrels of Flour in her Hold, ſome of which were marked H. M. the Brand M. H. and others marked A. M. 'Twas imagined ſhe took Fire at Sea, as her Cabooſe was burnt, and deſerted perhaps too ſoon by her Crew.

The Boundary Line between the Provinces of New-York and Quebec (the Name now given to all Canada) is fixed at 45 Deg. which croſſes Lake Champlain, about two and a half Miles North of Windmill-Point, and is diſtinguiſhed by Openings made on each Side of the Lake, where ſeveral Trees are girdled; and ſquare Poſts ſet up, marked with the Letters Y. and Q. pointing to the reſpective Governments. The opening on the Weſt Side of the Lake is at a low remarkable Point of Land, which was then, by the Gentlemen preſent, named Moore's Point, in Reſpect to his Excellency Sir Henry Moore, our Governor. His Excellency, and General Carleton, Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, were each attended by ſeveral Gentlemen from their reſpective Governments.

While his Excellency was at Windmill-Point, ſeveral Gentlemen from Quebec, took the Opportunity to wait on him, and acquaint him with their Claims, by Grants from the French King, of all the Lands in thoſe Parts, on both Sides the Lake, as far South as Crown-Point, or farther.—We are informed they very much inſiſted upon their Right, from theſe Grants, and that his Excellency was pleaſed to acquaint them, that the Determination would be left to the King and Council. Should the Claims of theſe Incroachers be admitted, it is hardly to be doubted but they may produce Grants for all the Lands to the North of Fort Edward.

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 25.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The SPEECH of his Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES-GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain-General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the said Province, and Vice-Admiral of the same.

To both HOUSES of ASSEMBLY, on Wednesday the Nineteenth Instant.

Honourable Gentlemen,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons House of Assembly,

IT gives me the highest Satisfaction to find this Province in so flourishing and peaceful a Situation, neither alarmed by foreign Enemies, nor disturbed by internal Broils.

His Majesty's great Attention and Regard to the Interests of the American Colonies, has at various Times been manifested, but particularly so, by the Repeal of the Stamp Act, the Indemnification of such Persons, whose too hasty Proceedings had rendered them obnoxious to the Laws; and by a late Act for repealing certain Duties in the British Colonies, and granting others that may be less prejudicial to them: These Marks of Affection, as they cannot fail of engaging your Gratitude, so I hope they will the Continuance of that Harmony and Unanimity amongst you, which alone can perpetuate the Blessings to yourselves, and to me be productive of the sincerest Pleasure.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons House of Assembly,

I have only to recommend to you, by his Majesty's Instructions, the providing a Sum of Money for building a new Goal; the Expediency and Necessity of which I believe most here are sensible of: I must also recommend to your Consideration, the ruinous State of your Fortifications, and particularly of Fort Johnson.

I have ordered the Publick Accounts to be called in, and will take Care they shall, in due Time, be laid before you, when, I doubt not, you will provide what is requisite for defraying the Expences of them.

Honourable Gentlemen,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons House of Assembly,

I have nothing more to recommend, but the making of such wholesome Laws and Regulations, as shall be most conducive to the Support of Religion, the Maintenance of good Order in this Province, and the Increase and Improvement of your Trade. C. G. MONTAGU.

November 19, 1766.

To His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES-GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain-General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The Humble ADDRESS of His Majesty's Council.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of this Province, return our sincere Thanks to your Excellency, for your Speech delivered Yesterday to both Houses of Assembly.

We congratulate your Excellency upon the very flourishing and prosperous State of this Province, and we persuade ourselves that your Excellency's unwearied Endeavours will not be wanting to promote its Happiness and Welfare.

We cannot too much admire the Wisdom and Lenity of his Majesty's auspicious Reign, supported by a noble Combination of truly Royal Virtues exerting their benign Influence, and demanding by the silent Eloquence of a great Example, the Imitation and Regard of all the different Members of the State, and the late Instance of his Majesty's Condescension and Goodness in the Repeal of the American Stamp Act, calls loudly for the most active Returns of Duty and Affection; at the same Time we beg leave to express the deepest Sense of Gratitude, upon the unexampled Moderation of the British Parliament.

It is with a just Indignation that we reflect upon those hasty Proceedings, which lately rendered many People obnoxious to the Laws, and we cannot sufficiently express our Abhorrence of those Practices, which so greatly disturbed the Peace of this Community; and we assure your Excellency, that we shall on all Occasions readily concur in every Measure calculated to advance the Interest of Religion, the Maintenance of good Order, and the Increase and Improvement of our Trade.

By Order of the House,
OTHNIEL BEALE.

In the Upper-House of Assembly, 20th of November, 1766.

His Excellency's ANSWER.

Honourable Gentlemen,

I Return you my sincere Thanks for your Address. The grateful Sense you express of His Majesty's Attention to the Interests of the American Colonies, cannot fail of giving the greatest Satisfaction.—I shall always endeavour to Merit your good Opinion, by giving any Assistance in my Power, to promote the Happiness and Welfare of this Province.

C. G. MONTAGU.

To His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES-GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain-General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Commons House of Assembly of the said Province.

May it please your Excellency,

THE various Instances of Attention and Regard shewn by our most Gracious Sovereign to the Interests of the American Colonies, cannot fail to fix the most indelible Impression upon the Minds of his loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commons House of Assembly of this Province; nor can the recent Marks of his Affection excite in them any other than the most grateful Acknowledgments.

That paternal Tenderness, which creates in us an unfeigned Love for his sacred Person, and Veneration for his just Authority, must for ever produce in us an uninterrupted Harmony and Unanimity, as the surest Means of perpetuating [illegible] we enjoy in a Reign no less distinguished for [illegible] that its glorious Adherence to the true Prin- Constitution, particularly manifested by the Stamp-Act: Nor will any Event, we hope, [illegible] o tarnish the Honour we incessantly Aspire after, of being ever recorded for our zealous Devotion to the King, and our firm Attachment to the steady Supporters of his Government.

The Satisfaction your Excellency is pleased to express in our flourishing and peaceful Situation, indicates your Inclination to Study our Happiness; and promises us that your Influence will be exerted to promote it.

We, in our Sphere, will give the most serious and diligent Application to the several Matters recommended to us by your Excellency; the Result of which will, we flatter ourselves, terminate in making such seasonable and wholesome Laws as may serve the Cause of Religion, maintain the good Order of Society, and tend to increase and improve our Trade and Manufactures.

By Order of the House,
PETER MANIGAULT, Speaker.

In the Commons House of Assembly, 21st November, 1766.

His Excellency's ANSWER.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons House of Assembly,

I Return you my sincere Thanks for your Address; and the Gratitude and Acknowledgment, you express to have for His Majesty's Regard to the Interest of the American Colonies, gives me the greatest Pleasure.

You may be assured, Gentlemen, that I shall ever Study to preserve and improve your Opinion of my Inclination and Desire to promote your Happiness.

C. G. MONTAGU.

DUBLIN, August 19.

The following is a part of a letter from a gentleman in the country, to his friend in town.

——"As to public affairs, they give me little concern; but whether being thirty miles from town removes me so far from popular prejudices, or confirms me in my own, I leave to you. I cannot see why Lord Chatham should be this moment a worse man than Mr. Pitt, nor can I find more similitude between Lord Chatham and Lord Bath, than Fluelin in Henry the 5th finds between Macedon and Monmouth;" "there is a river in Macedon, and there is a river in Monmouth." I know not much of Lord Bath's history; I know he was an angry opponent when a commoner, and nobody when a peer; but I never heard that he was ever a great minister, that he had directed a war with extraordinary talents and success, or rectified the blunders of an ignorant ministry in peace, or that he accepted the honours of a crown as the reward of a faithful service, when infirmity and years rendered him incapable of the fatigue of business in the lower house. If Lord Chatham was still Mr. Pitt, he could not, in the ordinary course of nature, retain his vigour longer than five or six years; rich fruits decay the soonest: I confess I think it more discreet to nod upon a woolpack, than exhibit the decay of nature in the same scene where its strength and vigour were once so conspicuous.

"A man cannot mix with any company, but some one will assert we must have a war. Tho' we are assured our enemies were heartily tired of the last, yet no sooner was peace proclaimed, but we were alarmed with their power, and that we should be involved in immediate trouble. This must be contrary to all probability. Whatever may be their inclination, we must think it unsuitable to their condition. Their finances were exhausted; and whatever recourses they might have, yet they could not be so simple as to put their state in a plight to oppose the power of Great-Britain so suddenly as we were made to believe: I speak of the French. A great recruit was necessary of ships, and magazines of all sorts to equip them, which will take up some time to procure before they can face us. Besides, France is disturbed internally: Its parliaments begin to strut, and make a shew of liberty. In many instances they have opposed the power of the king; and whilst he talks of his commands and his will, they as pertinently talk of the Laws, and are very loth to submit to commands. Spain is equally convulsed within, and so far from being in a state to vex us, would gladly be quiet herself."

KINGSTON, (in Jamaica) September 13.

The high wind, which happened on Friday and Saturday, the 15th and 16th of August, and did considerable damage to the shipping of this island, was not so terrible in its consequences as at Dominica and Martinico, as it did not happen here till two days after, in which time the wind had greatly abated of its fury.

Have imported in the Mary, Capt. Gordon, from London, and the Champion, Capt. Baker, from Briſtol;

A General Aſſortment of European and Eaſt-India Goods, which they will ſell very reaſonably at their Store on the Bay.——Two Caſks of Saddles, juſt imported from Glaſgow, to be ſold for Coſt and Charges.

The following is inſerted by Deſire of a principal Carolina Houſe in LONDON.

THE Length, Breadth and Quality of Staves required for the London Market, are as follows:

	Ft.	Inch.
Length,	5	8	called Pipe.
	4	6	Hhds. are the moſt uſed in London.
	3	6	Barrels.
	2	6	Heading.

They ſhould be from five to ſeven Inches broad, and one Inch and a Quarter thick, free from Sap, no more than four Wormholes in any one Stave, and none red Oak.

The Trees to be firſt quartered, and the Staves cleaved from the Quarter, otherwiſe they are not uſeful.

It is conjectured, That there is a Diſburſment of 80,000l. per Annum; for Staves brought from Hamburgh, Dantzick, and Stettin; however, the Reports of the Cuſtoms will prove the Quantity imported.

Butt-Caſks, made with Hamburgh, Dantzick, or Stettin Staves, coſt twenty Shillings each; but thoſe made with American Staves, will come to no more than twelve or thirteen Shillings each, and will laſt as longigain.

Barrel-Staves have already been brought from Quebec to the London Market; and thoſe properly cleaved, by quartering the Tree, were ſold for ten Pounds per Thouſand; but thoſe cleaved improperly, or by the Coopers called ſlitched, of the ſame Parcel, and equal in Breadth and Subſtance, ſold but for three Pounds fifteen Shillings per Thouſand.

Note, The moſt proper Seaſon to fell Oak Timber is in Winter, when the Sap is in the Root.

RUN-away, ſome time ago, from Capt. WILLIAM LYFORD, a negro wench named Moll; much pitted with the ſmall-pox, and is well known in town and country; particularly in Chriſt-church Pariſh.—He has likewiſe run-away, at Do, a negro fellow named Harry, much pitted with the ſmall-pox; is well known in Town, St. Thomas's pariſh, and Daniel's Iſland; he was formerly the property of the late Capt.
